ORDER FOR FITNESS EXAMINATION

This cause coming before the Court concerning the defendant's fitness to stand trial or to plead, and be sentenced. Present are: State Defense Counsel Defendant.

The Court finds: (Select Box A or B)

- A. There is a bona fide doubt as to the defendant's fitness for trial, to plead, or to be sentenced. The Court appoints the examiner indicated below to conduct a fitness examination.

Speedy trial is tolled pursuant to 725 ILCS 5/103-5(a). The court shall order a determination of the issue before proceeding further [725 ILCS 5/104-11(a)], other than matters of pretrial release and detention.

-OR-

- B. The defense has made a motion pursuant to 725 ILCS 5/104-11(b) for a discretionary examination to determine if a bona fide doubt exists as to the defendant's fitness. The Court grants the motion for an examination, but the Court makes no finding regarding a bona fide doubt as to the defendant's fitness.

This order shall not prevent further proceedings unless otherwise ordered.
